A CELEBRATION OF LIFE A DAY FOR SAM: Brant Hills Community Centre was the site of last weekend's Sam's Day, a fundraiser to support research into neuroblastoma, a rare form of childhood cancer. The event is named for Sam Lack, a three-year-old Burlington resident celebrating his first anniversary of being in remission from the disease. Highlights from Sam's Day included Sam Lack building a birdhouse with some help from his dad Jay. According to Andrea Lack -- Sam's mom -- the event surpassed its fundraising goal of $25,000.
