YOUNG SURVIVOR A MOTHER'S LOVE: Andrea and Sam Lack listen to the opening ceremonies at the annual Relay For Life held at Bronte Creek Provincial Park Friday. Sam has battled neuroblastoma, a rare but deadly childhood cancer. This Saturday (June 9), a special fundraiser called Sam's Day will be held at Brant Hills Community Centre, 2255 Brant St., from 1-4:30 p.m. This year's circus-themed event has something to offer the whole family including, among other things, magic, dancing, singing, birds of prey and face painting. The event was established as an annual birthday and remission anniversary celebration for Sam, and to raise money for The James Fund or Neuroblastoma Research at Sick Kids. A barbecue lunch, prepared by Burlington Mayor Cam Jackson and restaurateur, Murray Lloyd, is included in the pay one-price admission ($25 family pass/$10 single adult admission). A limited number of tickets will be available at the door, on a first come first served basis. For more information on Sam's Day, to purchase a ticket, or to make a donation visit www.samsday.org or email info@samsday.org.
